What is Hand-Picked?

We offer hand-picking of open pallets for several types of our stone. This enables a customer to hand-sort and select specific pieces of stone from an open pallet to suit their needs. Due to the extra labor and waste cleanup this creates for our staff, we must charge extra for this option. Individual stones selected for specific size, color, or shape are considered hand-picked.

Projects requiring larger amounts of specific stone or stone characteristics may be subject to additional charges and/or special-order pricing.
